Are you interested in being an agent of change?

Do you want to work with stakeholders to shape the Penn State Student Farm Initiative?

LARCH 424 / 497 / 510 SEMINAR
Community-Engaged Design and Planning: The Student Farm Initiative

3 credits, Fall 2015, T/Th 9:45 - 11:00 AM, Dept. of Landscape Architecture
Mallika Bose. Ph: 814-863-8136. E-mail: mub13@psu.edu
Information about the Initiative: http://sites.psu.edu/studentfarm/

- This hands-on, interdisciplinary seminar will introduce basic theories and methods of community-engaged design/planning and the role of community engagement in progressive design/planning practice.
- In small groups (3-4 students), students will work on different aspects of the Penn State Student Farm Initiative - putting into practice what they are learning in class. They will develop and carry out a community-engaged process involving stakeholders to shape the Student Farm Initiative.
- Guest lecturers from different disciplines will enrich this seminar by providing an interdisciplinary perspective on community engaged planning and practice.

You have the opportunity to make a real impact through this seminar.

Enrollment Details:
Larch 424.1 (Bose) for Undergrad Larch students / Larch 510.1 (Bose) for Grad students /
Larch 497.1 (Bose) for Non-Larch majors